

Sunpak

8001UT

Highlights

The Sunpak 8001UT aluminum tripod with photo/video pan head is perfect for all serious amateur photographers on the go using any HD/SLR, mirror less camera or camcorder. This is a light weight, full size and perfectly featured tripod that stands a 60.2" tall. Most of all, it is one of the most affordable tripods in its class. It also has a geared center column with folding crank for height adjustments. Constructed of 0.9" strong and lightweight D-shaped aluminum leg tubes for strength and load carrying abilities. For setup the extra large flip lever leg locks are easy to use even with gloves. The rubber feet with retractable spikes make it at home indoors and outdoors.
